

BRIGHTON & HOVE
Independent Mediation Service

CANDIDATE PACK

Chief Executive

March 2024

INTRODUCTION

Brighton & Hove Independent Mediation Service (BHIMS) is seeking a new Chief Executive to provide leadership, fresh vision, and direction to what is an impactful and dynamic local charity. We want an experienced and influential leader who will shape and deliver a new strategy to increase our income, partnership, and growth potential.

To be successful you will need the following attributes and experience:

- Track record of successful leadership.
- Ability to be strategic and operationally hands on.
- Experience of working in the charity sector and in small organisations, leading both a team/s and volunteers.
- Ability to develop and build trusted relationships with partners, funders, and other key stakeholders.
- Success in generating new income streams.
- Ability to respond positively to new challenges and changing circumstances.
- Be present in our office in central Brighton (incl. hybrid working).

This is an exciting opportunity for the successful candidate to work with the Senior Management Team (2), the Board of Trustees (6) and wider BHIMS team (4) to create a medium-long-term strategy, expanding our community reach across the city and beyond whilst improving our effectiveness overall.

ABOUT US

Brighton & Hove Independent Mediation Service (BHIMS) is a community-based independent mediation charity with a strong reputation locally. Our mission is to bring people in our community together to prevent and repair the harm caused by conflict.

We provide a comprehensive range of mediation, dispute and conflict resolution services and professional mediation training across Brighton & Hove and the surrounding areas of Lewes, Seaford, Newhaven and Peacehaven.

Our goal is to build stronger more cohesive local communities by empowering neighbours, families, businesses, and organisations to resolve their disputes and/or improve relationships.

We work in partnership with Brighton & Hove City Council, Lewes District Council, the Sussex Police & Crime Commissioner*, various Housing Associations, community groups and charities. As a member of the Sussex Mediation Alliance, we work closely with Mediation Plus.

Our strategic goals are:

- Build resilience by securing and diversifying our income.
- Increase our reach across different communities where conflict arises.
- Understand local unmet needs for conflict resolution and determine how best we respond to these needs now and in the longer term.

VALUES

Responsive | Accessible | Expert | Empowering | Supportive | Safe

* Please note: Given our partnership with the Sussex Police & Crime Commissioner, shortlisted candidates will need to undergo a simple vetting procedure – you will be notified in advance.

OUR IMPACT

BHIMS has been providing vital mediation services for people in the local community for 30 years. With our network of experienced mediators and small central team, our services support over 300 people each year.

Feedback from those who have benefited from our support demonstrates how we have impacted positively on their lives, helping them to repair the harm caused by conflict. Our services support areas such as housing needs, homeless prevention, policing, and community cohesion,

Our workplace mediation training offers charities and companies the chance to build their capacity to deliver effective mediation and conflict coaching within the workplace. Most recently we delivered training for the University of Sussex Student Union and provided online support for people hosting guests in the Homes for Ukraine Scheme.

OUR TEAM

Our high-quality service is driven by our wonderful office team and with the incredible support of a loyal network of over 40 mediators volunteering their time and expertise.

The staff team is made up of seven paid, part-time colleagues who support delivery of our vital services. Our team is encouraged to work flexibly whilst meeting the needs of the charity and its partners.

Our Board currently comprises of six fully engaged trustees with diverse backgrounds and experience in a range of relevant areas, including mediation, legal, local authorities. All current trustees live locally and work together to support the Chief Executive and wider team.

BENEFITS

- 29 days annual leave, incl. public holidays
- 4-day week with hybrid working (office/home, Mon-Thurs)
- Flexible working/TOIL
- Workplace pension scheme with 3% employer contributions
- Training & personal development

DIVERSITY, EQUITY & INCLUSION

BHIMS is committed to supporting and promoting Equity, Diversity & Inclusion – and complies with The Equality Act 2010. We believe that everyone has the right to live without fear or prejudice regardless of age, gender, race, sexual orientation, belief, or disability. BHIMS strives to create an inclusive workplace and tackle all forms of discrimination and inequality in both the workplace and the services the charity provides.

HOW TO APPLY

Please apply with an up-to-date CV (max. 2 x A4 pages) and a 1-page supporting statement, stating your motivations for applying and highlighting your relevant skills and experience against the person specification.

As part of your application, please complete our Diversity, Equity & Inclusion monitoring form, which is located on our website.
